Navigator Society

The CAPTAIN Navigator Society is comprised of individuals who support the important work CAPTAIN has done in our community for over 30 years; helping youth and their families navigate the rough waters of poverty, homelessness, violence, academic challenges, family dysfunction, underage drinking and drug use. We also strive to create an active, engaged citizenship through volunteerism and community service.

Please consider making an annual investment in your community by donating to the CAPTAIN Youth and Family Services Navigator Society.

Navigator Society Levels:

|            |                   |

YOUTH AND FAMILY SERVICES

Navigator Society

Yes, I/we commit to helping our neighbors navigate the rough waters of poverty, and other issues as a member of the Navigator Society at the following level:

- Ensign                 $250 - $499
- Lieutenant           $500 - $999
- Commander          $1,000 - $2,499
- Admiral                $2,500 and above

In 2010, 1660 neighbors visited our emergency food pantry.

Additionally, CAPTAIN distributed 97 Thanksgiving Baskets that fed 169 adults and 224 children.

Cheryl's Lodge serves over 300 children and 130 adults each year. In 2009 we provided 2,061 meals to residents of the Turf Mobil Home Community.
